

Reflective Question

What is your greatest takeaway(s) from this self-assessment? Did you find anything especially interesting, surprising, or confusing?

From this assessment, I found that I often collaborate, as well as accommodate and compromise. I knew already that I am ready to accommodate other's needs, as well as compromising my own opinions to agree with others, but I am not so much a collaborator, so that surprised me a little, but not a bad thing!